

Modern States

The Modern States Program was established to make college more accessible and affordable for high school students, college students and adult learners, including active military personnel, their families and veterans. This program offers a great opportunity for students to earn free college credit. Modern States has funded production of online courses taught by college professors. The courses prepare students for introductory CLEP exams. Modern States will pay for you to take the CLEP exam by completing the following steps:

1. Sign Up for Modern States on their website and enroll in a free course.
2. Complete all coursework and practice questions.
3. Request a CLEP voucher code from the Modern States website once complete.
4. Register for a CLEP test on the CLEP website and use your voucher code for payment.
5. Go on the Cochise College Testing Center website to set up your appointment to take your exam.

On the day of the test, bring your CLEP ticket and government ID. There will be a proctoring fee due at the time of testing. That fee will also be reimbursed by Modern States if you submit to them a fee receipt along with your CLEP receipt.
