

Cochise College and University of Phoenix FAQ

Does University of Phoenix accept transfer credits?

University of Phoenix accepts transfer credits from regionally and select nationally accredited institutions of higher learning. Many courses offered by Cochise College have been evaluated by University of Phoenix and may qualify for college credit toward an associate's or bachelor's degree. Please visit phoenix.edu/cochisecollege to access the Transfer Guide and see which courses or programs may qualify for college credit. Certain transfer credits may not be applicable to your degree program.

Are there any savings available for Cochise College graduates?

University of Phoenix will provide a 5% tuition reduction and a 100% PLA fee reduction to new students entering into a Bachelor Program at University who obtain an Associate's Degree from Cochise College after 11/4/11. After new students are confirmed as having an Associate's Degree from Cochise College, reduced tuition will apply to the then current rates at the time the student enrolls in a course. All students are subject to the University's admission policies.

In addition to online courses, does University of Phoenix also offer campus-based courses?

Yes. University of Phoenix offers a wide variety of online and campus-based programs although program availability and format vary by location. University of Phoenix offers continuing enrollment, meaning that students can enroll year round and that many courses start every week. Please check with a University Enrollment Advisor for availability. Students can visit phoenix.edu/cochisecollege to browse degree programs and search online or local campus programs.

Is University of Phoenix accredited?

Yes. University of Phoenix is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission and is a member of the North Central Association (ncahlc.org). For information about University of Phoenix accreditations and licensures, please visit phoenix.edu/about\_us/accreditation.html.

What kind of education and experience do faculty members have?

Our faculty members hold master's or doctoral degrees and have substantial experience in the fields they teach.

How long will it take to complete a degree?

Students can complete their undergraduate degree in approximately four years or less, depending on the number of previously earned and applicable credits. Students can generally earn their graduate degree within 18-24 months. Your Enrollment Advisor will be able to offer a more accurate evaluation of the time needed to complete a degree.

How do I know which programs are offered at my local campus or online?

University of Phoenix offers a variety of online and campus based programs; program availability varies by location. Visit phoenix.edu/cochisecollege to learn about the campus located nearest you.

How do I fund my education?

University of Phoenix offers numerous finance options to help you pay for your education. These options include federal and state financial aid, grants, loans, military assistance, employer tuition reimbursement, internal and external scholarship sources and access to other resources.

Where can students and alumni get answers to other detailed questions?

For additional information, visit phoenix.edu/cochisecollege or call 800.404.8016.

Your degree could be your next step.

Elevate your education by transferring your Cochise College credits toward a degree at University of Phoenix*. When you enroll in classes at University of Phoenix, you'll be assigned a personalized team of advisors to support you from enrollment to graduation. The faculty hold advanced degrees and work in the fields they teach — so you'll gain practical, real-time knowledge that is focused, challenging and relevant. And as a student, you'll have access to innovative education technologies and work in learning teams alongside other students, many of who are working professionals.

Learn more about this opportunity and these educational benefits at phoenix.edu/cochisecollege.

* While widely available, not all programs are available in all locations or in both online and on-campus formats. Please check with a University Enrollment Advisor.

University of Phoenix is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission and is a member of the North Central Association (ncahlc.org). The University's central administration is located at 4615 E. Elwood St., Phoenix, AZ 85040. Online Campus: 3157 E. Elwood St., Phoenix, AZ 85034. © 2011 University of Phoenix, Inc. All rights reserved.